Aquamarine (PG) – with Emma Roberts and Joanna Levesque. Following a violent storm, a beautiful and sassy mermaid named Aquamarine washes ashore and into the lives of two teenage girls. After Aquamarine falls for a local, hunky lifeguard, she enlists the girls' help to win his heart. (104 min)

Batman Begins (PG-13) – with Christian Bale and Katie Holmes. In the wake of his parents' murder, disillusioned industrial heir Bruce Wayne travels the world seeking the means to fight injustice and turn fear against those who prey on the fearful. He returns to Gotham and unveils his alter-ego: Batman, a masked crusader who uses his strength, intellect and an array of high tech deceptions to fight the sinister forces that threaten the city. (140 min)

Big Momma's House 2 (PG-13) – with Martin Lawrence and Nia Long. This time Big Momma must go undercover to nail his ex-partner's murderer. While undercover in the house of the suspected criminal, Malcom grows attached to the suspect's three children. (99 min)

Casanova (R) – with Heath Ledger and Sienna Miller. Ien Giacomo Casanova discovered Francesca Bruni, he met his ultimate romantic match, succumbing to the only woman ever to refuse his charms—until he could prove himself to be the one man worthy of her romantic desires. Not only a dashing rebel and wit, Casanova is also a vulnerable man who is chasing after love as Bishop Pucci of the Inquisition chases after him. Caught up in a comic whirl of disguises, duels, deceit and love-struck desire, Casanova begins to see the vital difference between the allure of conquest and the power of true love. (111 min)

Catch That Kid (PG) – with Kristen Stewart and Corbin Bleu. 12-year-old Maddy and her father have always shared a love for mountain climbing. Their hobby, however, has a disastrous effect when an accident on Mount Everest injures his spine, paralyzing him forever unless he gets a very expensive operation. Determined to raise the money to pay for it, Maddy decides to recruit two of her friends to help her break into the super-high-tech bank (which includes a vault suspended 30 feet off the floor) that her mother works at as the security chief. (92 min)

Cheaper by the Dozen (PG) – with Steve Martin and Bonnie Hunt. When a rural high school football coach gets an offer to coach at his college alma mater, he and his wife pack up and move their family of 12 to the big city. The children, who range in age from pre-school to 22, aren't especially happy about the big move. When their stay-at-home/writer Mom's book gets published, she finds herself on a promotional tour, leaving Dad at home to tackle his new job and take care of the kids. Chaos ensues as everyone struggles to adjust to all the changes. (99 min)

Chicken Little (G) – with Zach Braff and Garry Marshall. In the wake of the "unfortunate acorn incident" Chicken Little's name is mud in his hometown of Oakey Oaks. Down but not out, he struggles mightily to restore his reputation and make his Dad, Buck Cluck, proud. Chicken Little joins the local baseball team and, despite the fact that he is barely bigger than a baseball himself, he manages to smack a championship-winning homerun. But no sooner has Chicken Little redeemed himself then he is conked on the head one more time. And this time the sky really is falling! Fearful of once again being labeled crazy, Chicken Little tells no one but his best friends. Chicken Little eventually discovers that he needs to risk his newfound popularity and alert his father and the town. When Buck realizes Chicken Little actually has it right this time, he unites with his son and his friends as they set out to save the world. (81 min)

Cinderella (G) – with Lesley Ann Warren and Ginger Rogers. A beautiful young girl hopes to get a chance to go to the ball being held at the castle. Her stepmother and stepsisters do everything to prevent her from going, yet her fairy godmother bestows a lovely gown and carriage to take her to the ball. The prince is enchanted with her and seeks her to become his wife. (74 min)

Disney's Teacher's Pet (PG) – with Nathan Lane and Shaun Fleming. Spot the Dog is so curious about the world that he has taught himself how to talk and read, and then sneaks to school with his master, Leonard, where he poses as a human. (74 min)

Dukes of Hazard (PG-13) – with Johnny Knoxville and Seann William Scott. This story follows the adventures of "good old boy" cousins, Bo and Luke Duke, who with the help of their eye-catching cousin Daisy and moonshine running Uncle Jesse, try and save the family farm from being destroyed by Hazzard County's corrupt commissioner Boss Hogg. Their efforts constantly find the "Duke Boys" eluding authorities in "The General Lee," their famed 1969 orange Dodge Charger that keeps them one step ahead of the dimwitted antics of the small southern town's Sheriff Roscoe P. Coltrane. (105 min)

Freedomland (R) – with Samuel L. Jackson and Julianne Moore. Late one night in a working class New Jersey suburb, a bloodied woman slagers mute and dazed into the emergency room at the Dempsey Medical Center. After treatment for shock and hysteria, Brenda Martin recounts to Dempsey police detective Lorenzo Council — a horrific tale of being carjacked on the isolated strip of undeveloped land that divides Dempsey's urban housing projects from the blue collar town of Gannon, where she lives. She claims she was forced out of her car by a black man, but during the interrogation Council senses he's not getting the whole story. Only after hours of questioning does Brenda finally break down and confess that her four-year-old son, Cody, was asleep in the back seat of the stolen car. Led by activist Karen Colucci, members of the communities of Dempsey and Gannon unite in a search for the missing child, but the criminal investigation into the alleged kidnapping by a suspect who is presumed to be a local from the projects soon ignites long-simmering racial tensions between the two towns. (115 min)

Fun with Dick and Jane (PG-13) – with Jim Carrey and Tea Leoni. Dick and Jane are in love and living the American dream—until one day it becomes an American nightmare. When the company Dick works for becomes involved in an Enron-like scandal and he takes the rap, Dick and Jane are forced with the prospect of losing everything. After playing by the rules and getting burned, Dick has an idea: If stealing was good enough for his boss, then it's good enough for him. Using his newfound skills, he and Jane decide to exact hilarious revenge and teach big businesses a lesson. (90 min)

Garfield (PG) – with Liz Wilson and Bill Murray. When a dog named Odie is brought home, Garfield is forced to compete with him for the affection and attention of their perpetually single owner, Jon Arbuckle – much to Garfield's disgust. However, when a mean dog trainer kidnaps Odie, Garfield feels responsible, so he gets off his favorite spot and gets into action to rescue his fellow pet in crisis. (85 min)

Glory Road (PG) – with Josh Lucas and Derek Luke. This is the inspiring true story of the underdog Texas Western basketball team with history's first all African American starting lineup of players. Hall of Famer Don Haskins, the passionately dedicated college basketball coach, changed the history of basketball with his team's victory in this time of innocence and taking the country by storm surprisingly winning the 1966 NCAA tournament title. (118 min)

Harry Potter and the Goblet of Fire (PG-13) – with Daniel Radcliffe and Rupert Grint. In his fourth year at Hogwarts, Harry faces his greatest challenges and dangers yet. When he is selected under mysterious circumstances as a contestant in the Triwizard Tournament, Harry must compete against the best young wizards from schools all over Europe. But as he prepares, signs begin to point to the return of Lord Voldemort. Before long, Harry is playing not just for the Cup, but for his life. (157 min)

Hoodwinked (PG) – with Anne Hathaway and Glenn Close. Chief Grizzly and Detective Bill Stork investigate a domestic disturbance at Granny's cottage involving a girl, a wolf and an axe. The charges are many: breaking and entering, disturbing the peace, intent to eat, and wielding an axe without a license. Not to mention, this case might be tied to the elusive "Goody Bandit" who has been stealing the recipes of goody shops everywhere. (83 min)

Kicking and Screaming (PG) – with Will Ferrell and Robert Duvall. Phil Weston is an average Joe and his wife's had to put up all his life with his overly competitive father, Buck. When Phil decides to coach his 10-year-old son's soccer team, he goes head-to-head for the league championship against Buck, who coaches his own young son on the greatest team of the league. Old scores come into play as Phil and Buck find themselves going to extreme measures to win the championship trophy. (96 min)

King Kong (PG-13) – with Naomi Watts and Jack Black. Flamboyant, foolhardy documentary filmmaker, Carl Denham, sails off to remote Skull Island to film his latest epic with leading lady, Ann Darrow. Native warriors kidnap Ann to use as a sacrifice as they summon "Kong" with the local witch doctor. But instead of devouring Ann, Kong saves her. Kong is eventually taken back to New York where he searches high and low for Ann, eventually winding up at the top of the Empire State Building, facing off against a fleet of World War I fighter planes. (187 min)

Lady and the Tramp (G) – with Peggy Lee and Barbara Luddy. Lady, a golden cocker spaniel, meets up with a mongrel dog who calls himself the Tramp. He is obviously from the wrong side of town, but happenings at Lady's home make her decide to travel with him for a while. This turns out to be a bad move, as no dog is above the law. (76 min)

Madagascar (PG) – with Ben Stiller and Chris Rock. Alex the lion is the king of the urban jungle, the main attraction at New York's Central Park Zoo. He and his best friends Marty the Zebra, Melman the Giraffe and Gloria the Hippo have lived their entire lives in blissful captivity. Marty allows his curiosity to get the better of him and with the help of some abnormal penguins, makes his escape to explore the world he has been missing. Alex, Melman and Gloria go after him, but before they can go wild in the streets, they are captured, crated and put on a ship to Africa to be ultimately set free. (80 min)

Memoirs of a Geisha (PG-13) – with Ziyi Zhang and Ken Watanabe. In the years before World War II, a Japanese child is torn from her penniless family to work at a geisha house. Despite a treacherous rival who nearly breaks her spirit, the girl blossoms into the legendary geisha Sayuri. Beautiful and accomplished, Sayuri captivates the most powerful men of her day, but is haunted by her secret love for the one man beyond her reach. (145 min)

Munich (R) – with Eric Bana and Daniel Craig. Set in the aftermath of the massacre of 11 Israeli athletes at the 1972 Munich Olympics, this story follows a secret Israeli squad assigned to track down and kill the 11 Palestinians suspected to have planned the Munich attack—and the personal toll this mission of revenge takes on the team and the man who led it. (148 min)

Nanny McPhee (PG) – with Emma Thompson and Colin Firth. A new nanny enters the household of the recently widowed Mr. Brown and attempts to tame his seven exceedingly ill behaved children. The children, led by the oldest boy Simon, have managed to drive away 17 previous nannies and are certain that they will have no trouble with this one. But as Nanny McPhee takes control, they begin to notice that their vile behavior now leads swiftly and magically to rather startling consequences. Her influence also extends to the family's deeper problems, including Mr. Brown's sudden and seemingly inexplicable attempts to find a new wife: an announcement by the domineering Aunt Adelaide that she intends to take one of the children away; and the sad and secret longings of their scullery maid, Evangeline. As the children's behavior begins to change, Nanny McPhee's arresting face and frame appear to change as well, creating even more questions about this mysterious stranger whom the children and their father have come to love. (99 min)

National Treasure (PG) – with Nicolas Cage and Diane Kruger. Benjamin Franklin Gates has been searching for a treasure no one believed existed. Hidden by our Founding Fathers, they left clues to the treasure's location right before our eyes. In a race against time, Gates must elude the FBI, stay one step ahead of his ruthless adversary, decipher the remaining clues and unlock the 2000 year-old mystery behind our greatest national treasure. (125 min)

Robots (PG) – with Ewan McGregor and Halle Berry. This is the story of a young genius, Rodney, who wants to make robots capable of making the world a better place, but he finds his dream challenged by a corporate tyrant and a master inventor, Big Weld, while also being seduced by a sexy corporate robot, Cappy. (83 min)

Rumor Has It (PG-13) – with Jennifer Aniston and Mark Ruffalo. Sarah Huttliger's life is in a tailspin. She's finally agreed to marry her boyfriend Jeff, but isn't at all sure that marriage is what she really wants—in fact, she's not sure what she wants in general. As conflicted as she is about her love life, her professional life isn't much better—an aspiring journalist, Sarah's career has stalled at the New York Times obituary column. To top it all off, she's on her way home to attend her sister's wedding, which means spending a lot of time with her tennis-obsessed Pasadena family. Somewhat of a black sheep, Sarah's never quite felt a part of things when it comes to her relatives. But when she meets Internet millionaire Beau Burroughs, their encounter unexpectedly unlocks some well-kept secrets that may help Sarah uncover the truth about her family and finally discover who she truly is, once and for all. (97 min)

Shark Tale (PG) – with Will Smith and Robert De Niro. Oscar is a fast-talking little fish that dreams big. But his big dreams land him in hot water when a great white lie turns him into an unlikely hero. At first, his fellow fish swallow Oscar's story, hook, line and sinker and he is showered with fame and fortune. It's all going along swimmingly, until it starts to become clear that Oscar's tale about being the defender of the Reef is all wet. Oscar is finding out that being a hero comes at a Market Price when his lie threatens to make him the Catch of the Day. Now he has to tread water until he can get the scales to tip back in his favor again. (91 min)

Sky Captain and the World of Tomorrow (PG) – with Jude Law and Gwyneth Paltrow. Famous scientists around the world have mysteriously disappeared and Chronicle reporter Polly Perkins along with ace aviator Sky Captain are on the investigation. Risking their lives as they travel to exotic places around world, can the fearless duo stop Dr. Totenkopf, the evil mastermind behind a plot to destroy the earth? Aided by Franky Cook, commander of an all-female amphibious squadron, and technical genius Dex, Polly and Sky Captain may be our planet's only hope. (107 min)

Sky High (PG) – with Michael Angarano and Kurt Russell. When you're the son of the world's most legendary superheroes The Commander and Jetstream, there is only one school for you – Sky High, an elite high school that is entrusted with the responsibility of molding today's power-gifted students into tomorrow's superheroes. The problem is that Will Stronghold is starting with no superpowers of his own and, worst of all, instead of joining the ranks of the "Hero" class, he finds himself relegated to being a "Sidekick." (99 min)

Syriana (R) – with George Clooney and Matt Damon. As a career CIA operative begins to uncover the disturbing truth about the work he has devoted his life to, an up-and-coming oil broker faces an unimaginable family tragedy and finds redemption in his partnership with an idealistic Gulf prince. A corporate lawyer faces a moral dilemma as he finesses the questionable merger of two powerful U.S. oil companies, while across the globe, a disenfranchised Pakistani teenager falls prey to the recruiting efforts of a charismatic cleric. Each plays their small part in the vast and complex system that powers the industry, unaware of the explosive impact their lives will have upon the world. (128 min)

The Chronicles of Narnia (PG) – with Tilda Swinton and James McAvoy. C.S. Lewis' 'The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe' was first published in 1950 and is the second installment of the writer's legendary seven-part 'Chronicles of Narnia' series. The book tells the story of Peter, Susan, Edmund, and Lucy, who are separated from their parents in London during the German air raids of World War II. They are sent to the country for safety and find a magic wardrobe that transports them to the mystical world of Narnia, a once peaceful land of talking beasts, dwarfs and giants. However, Narnia has been frozen by the evil White Witch, and the kids must help the lion Aslan break her spell. (132 min)

The Last Holiday (PG-13) – with Queen Latifah and Alicia Witt. After being diagnosed with a fatal disease a shy sales clerk goes on a European vacation to live out the rest of her life. With nothing to lose—or so she thinks—her behavior becomes more irreverent and outrageous each day only to find out later she was misdiagnosed. (112 min)

The Matador (R) – with Pierce Brosnan and Greg Kinnear. When a traveling salesman, Danny Wright, accidentally meets up with Julian Noble, a hit man, at a Mexico City bar, their subsequent evening together intertwines their lives in an unexpected, but lasting bond. (97 min)

The Pink Panther (PG) – with Kevin Kline and Steve Martin. A world-famous soccer coach has been murdered and his priceless, legendary ring has been stolen—a ring set with the stunning diamond known as the "Pink Panther." The French government needs a master detective to solve the crime and recover the gem—but he's not available, so they recruit none other than Inspector Jacques Clouseau. Clouseau and his partner, Ponton, must unmask the murderer and keep their boss, Dreyfus, from taking credit for the victory, all without bringing the French legal system to a screeching halt. (93 min)

The Producers (PG-13) – with Will Ferrell and Nathan Lane. A shady Broadway producer and his nerdy accountant concoct a scheme to over-finance a huge flop and pocket the excess budget, but the show unexpectedly becomes a smash. (134 min)

The Ringers (PG-13) – with Johnny Knoxville and Brian Cox. When Steve Barker finds himself running dead last in the corporate rat race, he sinks to an all time low—he attempts to rig the Special Olympics by pretending to be intellectually challenged. But, Barker is completely out-classed by his fellow Olympians, who are not only better athletes; they're just plain better people. And they're on to him. But rather than rat-out the rat, they join forces with him to once and for all beat Jimmy, the cocky reigning champion of the annual games. With a work-out regime uniquely their own, they train Barker to go for the gold and, in the process, show him what's at the heart of a true winner. (94 min)

The Shaggy Dog (PG) – with Tim Allen and Kristin Davis. It all begins when wackaholic Deputy D.A. Dave Douglas takes on a case involving an animal laboratory — one that will take him away yet again from his wife and kids, who already yearn for his all-too-distracted attention. But when Dave is accidentally infected with a top-secret, genetic-mutagen serum, everything he thought he knew about being himself and his family changes. Yet with his newly perked-up ears, and his front-row seat on the household carpet, Dave is able to gain a whole new perspective into his family's secrets and dreams. Now, he wants nothing more than to stop fetching and return to fathering — only first he'll have to stop the evil forces behind the serum. (99 min)

Tristan and Isolde (PG-13) – with James Franco and Sophia Myles. In the medieval legend of Tristan and Isolde, young lovers become doomed against the forces of royal politics. English knight Tristan wins the hand of the daughter of the Irish King, but the love threatens the truce between their two countries. (125 min)

Underworld: Evolution (R) – with Kate Beckinsale and Scott Speedman. Underworld: Evolution continues the Saga of war between the aristocratic Death Dealers and the Barbaric Lycans. The film traces the beginnings of the ancient feud between the two tribes as Selene, the vampire heroine, and Michael, the lycan hybrid, try to unlock the secrets of their bloodlines. The tale of action, intrigue and forbidden love takes them into the battle to end all wars, as the immortals must finally face their retribution. (106 min)

When a Stranger Calls (PG-13) – with Camilla Belle and Katie Cassidy. While babysitting, a high school student is terrorized by a stranger who calls her, asking "have you checked the children lately?" The police eventually notify her that the calls are coming from inside the house. (87 min)

Wild Thornberry's (PG) – with Lynn Redgrave and Marisa Tomei. A long time ago, a shaman granted Eliza Thornberry the ability to talk to animals in return for a good deed she had done. This ability has gotten her into many WILD adventures...and it looks like this African safari is no exception! When poachers snatch a cheetah cub that is traveling with Eliza and her chimp friend, Darwin, the duo is on the case to retrieve the cub and solve a bigger mystery involving a herd of elephants. (78 min)

Zathura (PG) – with Tim Robbins and Josh Hutcherson. Danny and ten-year old Walter discover an old lattered metal board game, "Zathura." After trying unsuccessfully to get his brother to play the game with him, Danny starts to play on his own. From his first move, Danny realizes this is no ordinary board game. His spaceship marker moves by itself and when it lands on a space, a card is ejected, which reads: "Meteor shower, take evasive action." The house is immediately pummeled from above by hot, molten meteors. When Danny and Walter look up through the gaping hole in their roof, they discover, to their horror that they have propelled into deepest, darkest outer space. Danny and Walter realize that unless they finish the game they'll be trapped in outer space forever. (101 min)
